

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is in direct violation of FEC regulations and the McCain-Feingold Law.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

They are also obligated by law to give EQUAL TIME to all contestants in an election.

If the FCC allows Sinclair to proceed with broadcasting the anti-John Kerry film "Stolen Honor" without allowing an equal amount of time for the other side of story, it is not only flouting the law but betraying the responsibility bestowed upon it by the American people.

Surely this cannot happen in my "free" country, for whose freedom young American men and women are dying every day.
